Dear Mr. Anderson,

At Gandalf Flour Mills, we pride ourselves on producing premium-quality flour, and it has been an absolute pleasure to supply Elven Bread Co. with our products. Over the past ten years, our partnership has flourished, becoming a cornerstone of mutual success in the baking industry.

Since we began collaborating, our combined efforts have resulted in a 35% increase in annual profits. This significant growth reflects the strength of our business relationship and the shared commitment to excellence that both our companies uphold.

As a token of our appreciation, we are delighted to offer Elven Bread Co. an exclusive 15% discount on all orders placed within the next six months. We believe this incentive will further strengthen our partnership and contribute to our continued collective success.

Thank you for your unwavering trust and collaboration. We look forward to many more years of shared achievements and prosperous business together.
